What the P & F does for our school community:

The P & F Association meets twice a term and discusses issues relevant to the parents and students at the school. We provide additional funds to the school through fundraising activities. We encourage and welcome parents to our meetings. The meetings provide an opportunity for parents to have a voice in decisions that affect themselves and their children. Some of the topics we discuss include the reporting system for our children's grades, determination of the elective subjects provided, how the money raised by the P & F is spent and details of excursions and events that are compulsory in the school calendar. A parent is free to raise any issue they wish for discussion.

What your P & F membership pays for:

The P & F at Woodlawn uses the membership fees collected to cover our costs of postage and stationery, incurred for example, in providing information and updates to families. We also use the fees to pay our membership with the NSW Parents Council (NSWPC). NSWPC is recognised as the voice of non-government parents in the general community. The work the NSWPC does includes advocating the interests of non-government school parents in the State and Federal political arenas and in the educational arena. The NSWPC also informs parents on relevant educational and school issues. These issues have recently included comment on such broad ranging issues as the NAPLAN assessments and your child's learning style.
